In a ſhort Time will be publiſhed, a PORTRAIT, Etched with the Point of a Fork, by AUSTIN of Portland-road,

Of ZACCHARIAH SHARP,

COW-DOCTOR, Tooth-Drawer, Perriwig-Maker, Corn-Cutter, and Rat-catcher; Wholeſale Dealer in Turf; Buys and Sells old Rags, Shining Black, Kitchen-Stuff, Small Beer, Brickduſt and Honey; Lets out a Horſe and Cart, Wheel-barrows, Scythes, and Reap-Hooks; Aſſes-Milk and hot Rolls and Butter every Morning; Cures ſmoky Chimnies; ſells Acorns, Faggots, Mops, Bruſhes and Brooms; buys old Lead and Iron honeſtly come by; Horſe-Combs and Hardware; Dealer in Hops; plays the Fiddle, Fife and Tabour; Hot Shins of Beef on Saturday Evenings; Lodgings furniſhed or unfurniſhed; Horſes and Aſſes taken to Graſs every Midſummer-Day, at Tenpence Halfpenny each per Week; Bleeds for 4d. and draws Teeth at 2s. per Dozen.

N. B. The Weekly Journal read Gratis on Sunday Morning at Eight o'Clock, by TOBIAS SHARP, Junior, in the Great Barn.

1730